

NAUM POPOVSKI
Engineering Designer

Education Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan; Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering Technology, 2008

Schoolcraft College, Livonia, Michigan; Associates of Applied Science in Mechanical Design, 2004

Background Mr. Popovski has over sixteen years' experience in HVAC and Plumbing systems for the building design and construction profession. Includes system evaluation, project design/layout, development of project specifications, and selection of equipment and interface with clients.

Project Experience Detroit Events Center, Detroit, MI
HVAC, plumbing and fire protection design for new 800,000 s.f. Detroit Events Center. Includes ice melt systems, concession areas, training rooms, locker rooms, hydrotherapy rooms, suites and practice areas.

Angela Hospice – Livonia, MI
Renovation of 20,500 s.f. of existing and 49,600 s.f. of new addition, including administration offices, patient rooms, kitchen, and chapel.

Marywood Nursing - Livonia, MI
Renovation of 74,300 s.f. of existing nursing facility. Includes additional administration offices, chapel and physical therapy rooms.

Olympia Development Corporation, Detroit, MI
Design of mechanical and plumbing systems for two mixed use office/retail as part of the DEC. Buildings AB and Building C.

Ferndale Apartments – Ferndale, MI
Historic renovation of two three-story buildings being converted into 34 individual housing units. Included demolition of 41,000 s.f., as well as renovation and roughing-in of 7,500 s.f. of retail space.

Willy's Lofts – Detroit, MI
Historic renovation of four-story building being converted into 75 luxury residential units. Including first level retail. 80,000 sf